

WORK BEGINS ON ONNI'S EVELYN IN WEST VANCOUVER

WAYNE LEIDENFROST/PNG FILES

The Onni Group broke ground earlier this month on Evelyn, a 20-acre development in West Vancouver that will comprise 349 homes. Those residences will be situated on a hillside off Taylor Way, stepped down the slope with large terraces that will form the roofs of the homes below them. All will face south, oriented to the sun and the view, and all will be within walking distance of Park Royal shopping centre and the seawall. Evelyn homes, with one to three bedrooms, start at $759,900. Pictured left to right at the groundbreaking, are Bob Sokol, West Vancouver's director of planning, lands and permits; architect Robert Ciccozzi; landscape architect Peter Kreuk, West Vancouver Coun. Nora Gambioli; West Vancouver Mayor Michael Smith; Coun. Mary-Ann Booth; Beau Jarvis, Onni's vice-president of development; and development manager Eric Hughes.

